Ysgol Esgob Morgan is a very caring, inclusive school, which values all pupils as individuals. ESTYN 2018

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Last week was certainly a very eventful week in more ways than one and I write to you with a little bit of news.

I have been approached, and the Governing body have accepted, to become Interim Executive Head Teacher of Ysgol Bryn Hedydd in Rhyl as well as remaining here as Head teacher of Ysgol Esgob Morgan.

It is nice to know the hard work and dedication that we all put in here at Ysgol Esgob Morgan has been recognised and that the school is considered to be in a place for this to happen.

The role is temporary and the Governing Body have agreed to this arrangement for this term.

I will still be on site at this school, as well as the other, and I will ensure that my time is spent equitably between the two.

Obviously, this means a few changes at our school. I am still the head so I am still as contactable as I ever have been, but it does mean Mrs Subacchi will need more time to cover for when I am not here. Therefore Miss Ffion Burke will be taking over the Year 5 class for this term, for this to happen. Miss Burke has been a student teacher here with us, and has been working since the start of the school with groups of learners, so your children may already know her.

Everyone knows my love of this school and I give you my assurance and promise that standards will not drop as I have every faith in Mrs Subacchi and the excellent team here at Esgob Morgan.

This has happened very quickly and I am sure you may have questions and I am on hand throughout the day or at the end of the day to answer them. It is an exciting opportunity for me and for the schools as will be able to share good practise between the two sites.

I know I can count on your support in this matter and will work alongside Mrs Subacchi as you do with me.

Kindest regards

Mr Redgrave.
